THE BEST MOVIES ON FILMBOX ARTHOUSE!
CONTEMPORARY CHILEAN ARTHOUSE

Drama

DEVIL'S LIQUOR

Chile, 2012

Director: Ignacio Rodriguez
Starring: Jaime Vadell, Camilo Carmona, Eugenio Morales

Old man Eladio is dying. Throughout the last decades, he has lived alone, working in his old liquor factory. Modernity threatens his spirits business, but he refuses to abandon it. A visit by his oldest grandson will be the ideal moment to save the factory, while at the same time, reconnect with his family.

Drama

IVAN'S WOMAN

Chile, 2011

Director: Francisca Silva
Starring: Marcelo Alonso, Maria de Los Angeles Garcia, Aldo Parodi

When Natascha Kampusch was kidnapped in Vienna at age 10, it shocked the world by the paradoxical relationship that was generated between her and her abductor. Inspired by this story, Director Francisca Silva brings us her opera prima - Ivan's woman. With the young woman's coming of age, they find themselves acquiring a new level of intimacy, spurred on by their isolation from the world, closed limits of captivity and most importantly the extinction of moral values.

Drama

ONE MORE TIME

Chile, Italy, 2013

Director: Pablo Benedetti, David Sordella
Starring: Lucia Bose, Magaly Solier

An 80-year-old actress returns to the small Chilean town of her youth to fulfill her father's dream of creating a TV channel in a place which has never known television.

SOPHIE BEXTOR REPLACES VODKA WITH TEQUILA

The woman whose voice was once the soundtrack to dancefloors across the UK and beyond, has matured into a recording artist some of whose melodies you’re more likely to recognize from a romantic evening in than a wild night out. Her new album “Familia” is a continuation of “Wanderlust” but it moves from Eastern Europe to a warmer and sunnier climate and replaces vodka with tequila. Watch her new video “Come with us” on 360TuneBox.
