TATNEFT

TATNEFT CUP

Started in 2008, TNA uses only percussion fighting techniques borrowed from such arts as Kyokushinkai, Muay Thai and Kickboxing, which greatly enhances its entertainment. the battle is in full contact.

Virtually all types of martial arts athletes can participate; meaning, at the end of the season we have a chance to identify the absolute worldchampion in martial arts.

TNA is full contact, knockout or knockdown, and no captures.

Consists of three tournaments in three weight categories (-70 kg, -80 kg, +80 kg) with 4 selections of 1/8 finals, 2 selections of quarter finals, semi finals and final tournament.

48 participants, 30 countries of the world, 5 continents in the ring of Tatneft Arena.

GOLDEN FIGHTER
KICKBOXING CHAMPIONSHIP

GOLDEN FIGHTER

Golden Fighter is a professional kickboxing organization that organizes large-scale events that bring face-to-face the teams of two countries in Super Fight matches or belt matches.

Strong impact “Country VS Country” matches bring the emotions of the traditional team matches like football, handball or rugby into the courts of kickboxing arenas.

The “Country VS Country” format creates a close collaboration with other partner organizations from Bulgaria, Greece, The Netherlands, Republic of Moldova, China and other countries.

HIP SHOW

The fights are 2-on-2 in a 3D 12x12m arena rather than inside a conventional flat ring. Fighters run, jump, climb and fight inside the obstacle filled arena.

If one of the team members in the arena drops out after a knockout, the fight continues in a 2 v 1 format. If the remaining team member can hold out for 60 seconds the bout ends in a tie.
